Fr. Tony's Column

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

In this Sunday's gospel we see one of the great images of not just the gospels, but of the whole Scriptures; the image of the Shepherd. In the Old Testament, God himself is represented as the shepherd of his people. Psalm 23 begins with "The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want." The prophet Isaiah in speaking of the coming messiah says "Like a shepherd he feeds his flock; in his arms he gathers the lambs, carrying them in his bosom, and leading the ewes with care." (Isaiah 40:11). This ideal image of the shepherd finds its complete realization in Christ. In the gospels, Jesus declares "I am the good shepherd who lays down his life for the sheep." In many countries sheep are raised for their meat, but in Israel at the time of Jesus they would have been mainly raised for their wool and for milk. Therefore, they would have stayed for many years with the shepherd who would have known well each of the sheep in his flock. The image of Christ as the good shepherd is one of the most ancient images of the Christian faith. It is a common image to see Christ, the good shepherd, carrying a lamb on his shoulders.

In our life of faith, it is a great gift to know that Jesus wants to be our Shepherd - to lead us and guide us where he wants us to go. The challenge for us is to let him lead and for us to follow. May God give us the grace we need to see Him, to hear Him and to follow Him.

God bless,

Fr. Tony

If you volunteer for a parish ministry and have not been contacted yet, please let us know.

There is an expression: "It's never too late to say thank you." I'm hoping it still holds! While we're well underway with the Easter Season, I want to thank everyone for their attention to detail throughout the celebration of the Sacred Triduum. How appreciative we are to those who had various ministries, never slighting for a moment the role of the assembly. Each year we pray we will have even more participation. Your full-hearted entering into the holiest time of our year speaks of the way your lives reflect the mystery of Christ's life, death, and resurrection. Thank you and onward to Pentecost!
 --Sr. Carrie

What's Happening Now?? Understanding the Mass

The Eucharistic Prayers (cont.) The priest now continues with the words, "Therefore, as we celebrate the memorial of his Death and Resurrection, we offer you, Lord, the Bread of Life and the Chalice of Salvation, giving thanks that you have held us worthy to be in your presence and minister to you." We are asked to recall Christ's sacrifice approximately 2,000 years ago, but also to bring it to the present time. As the Jews celebrated the Passover every year as if it were happening in the present, we also are asked to participate in the Eucharistic sacrifice with Jesus as if it were happening now. Through our repeated requests for forgiveness throughout the Mass, we pray that we may be worthy to share this event with Him. We further pray that the Church throughout the world may be gathered into one and be united with Mary, the Saints, and all those in heaven who have died before us. Think about: When I receive Communion, do I feel united with all the others who are celebrating, both on earth and in heaven?

There will be a Healing Mass on Tuesday, May 12th, at 7:00pm at Holy Name of Jesus Church, 155 County Road 24, Wayzata. Fr. Jim Livingston, the Hospital Chaplain at North Memorial Medical Center in Robbinsdale, will be the celebrant. The rosary will begin at 6:30pm. Seating for handicapped is available. For more information, please call Teresa at 763-553-1343.

DISCIPLESHIP ... FAITH IN ACTION

Stewardship Thought

*"I am the good shepherd... and I lay down my life for the sheep...
and they will heed my voice."
- John 10:14-16*

When you pray, do you only ask Jesus for things that you want? Do you ever ask Jesus what He wants you to do? How do you listen for the response? The answer is usually in "quiet whispers." Take time in silent, daily prayer to hear His answer.

Catholic Home Missions Appeal

Strengthening the Church at Home

The Catholic Home Missions Appeal will take place next week. One way that this appeal works to strengthen home mission dioceses in the United States is by funding seminarian formation in poor dioceses. The blessing of seminarians places a financial burden on these dioceses, where educating each seminarian costs $35,000-40,000 per year. Your support is needed for these young men, so that they might go back and serve their parishes. Please strengthen the Church at home by making a generous gift to next week's appeal. Thank you.

Council of Catholic Women

Our next CCW Meeting is Tuesday, May 5th. We will begin in the Church with Mass at 6:30pm, followed by a potluck dinner in the Presentation Room. All women of the parish are welcome!

Fellowship Sunday - May 3rd after the Sunday Masses. Join us in the PACE Center for coffee, homemade donuts, and fellowship!

All women of the parish are invited to the Annual CCW Retreat at Christ the King Retreat Center in Buffalo on Thursday, May 14th. The carpool will leave the OLL Church parking lot at 8:30am. Please call Judy Gauvin at 952-472-4760 to sign-up.
