A Message from Fr. Tony

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Today we celebrate the Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ. We celebrate the great gift of the Eucharist. The Fathers of the Second Vatican Council described the Eucharist as “the source and summit of our faith.” All of the grace and power that we need for our lives of holiness comes from the Eucharist because it is here that the sacrifice of Christ is made present and we reap the salvation that He won for us. The Eucharist is what gives meaning to our lives, why? – because it is here that we receive the new life promised by Christ. Every time we come to the Eucharist we receive an invitation, an invitation to go deeper with Christ our Lord, to understand more deeply what it is to live as His disciple.

What makes this feast even more joyful is to have Fr. Peter Hughes come and celebrate a Mass of Thanksgiving. Heartfelt congratulations to him. We all know what a great priest he will be. It is a wonderful tradition in our Church to receive the blessing of a newly ordained priest. Fr. Peter will be available after Mass to impart his priestly blessing.

God bless,

Fr. Tony

What's Happening Now? Understanding the Mass

The "Lamb of God" (Agnus dei). The night before the Hebrews left their life of slavery in Egypt, they were told to sacrifice a lamb, putting its blood on the door posts of their houses, and eating it for their evening meal. This practice is repeated annually, and is known as the Passover. As the Jews were required to take a spotless, unblemished lamb for this sacrifice, and not break any of its bones during the killing, so Jesus is for us the pure and sinless sacrifice. For Christians, Jesus becomes the sacrificial Lamb, so that we no longer have to repeat this Jewish tradition. Before we receive the Eucharist, we acknowledge His sacrifice that frees us from our slavery to sin. St. John further describes this victory when he explains the celebration in heaven of all those who are worshipping God. (Rev. 5:11-13).

Think about: What will it be like to worship God in heaven?

Bible Study

Priest, Prophet, King by Fr. Robert Barron

This week, Fr. Barron talks about Jesus as the "Divine Truth" as seen through His teachings of the Beatitudes. He explains how we are to do the will of the Father. Session #4 is on Monday at 6:30pm and Tuesday at 1:30pm in the Church Library. Come and check it out - only two more sessions after this!

DISCIPLESHIP ... FAITH IN ACTION

Stewardship Thought

*"Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them and they all drank from it."
- Mark 14:23*

Jesus, the perfect steward, gave thanks, just before He gave Himself to us completely for our salvation. He offers us the chance to drink from His cup. In the Eucharist, we meet Christ personally and, if we listen to Him, we know what drinking from His cup means for each of us. Often, it means our own sacrifice - giving up some of our time, talent and treasure to do His work on earth.
