Rosary Intention: Move Boldly Towards Christ's Mission

A Man of Compassion

Jesus called his twelve disciples together and sent them out two by two into the world to serve those in need. He had prepared them by his own example of compassion. God, who has come to us through Jesus Christ, has given us a man for others--a man of compassion. For people who had anxiety problems, he had compassion. For the crowds who were hungry, he had compassion. For the sick, sore and disabled, he had compassion. The disciples had heard Jesus speak of feeding the hungry and visiting the imprisoned and healing the sick, but it wasn't until he sent them out to do it themselves that they really learned these lessons.

When you and I come in contact with Christ, he feeds us, he nourishes us, he shows us compassion, and he gives us his great love. Then he says, you feed them, you nourish them, you show them compassion, and you love them. He tells us this because each of us is precious in his sight. He sends you and me out into the world to make a difference. Like the first twelve, we are called to serve our brothers and sisters as disciples in the world.

God bless,
Deacon Del

What's Happening Now? Understanding the Mass

Concluding Rites After any announcements, the priest extends his hands and says, "The Lord be with you." And we respond with "And with your spirit." This is the same exchange as at the beginning of the Mass, before the Gospel reading, and before the Communion Rites. It is now repeated at the end, again as a prayer for the priest. We then bow our heads to receive the final blessing: "May almighty God bless you, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit." We respond with "Amen" as an affirmation of this blessing. The priest then sends us out with the words "Go in peace" or "Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord" or something similar. As Jesus told his Apostles, "As the Father has sent me, even so I send you" (John 20:21), we are called to be disciples of Christ. Think about: How do I live out my Catholic beliefs?

Open Forum Bible Study

This week we will continue an "Open Forum" where you are invited to bring your questions and concerns for sharing and discussion. Any issues you may have about the Church, its teachings, and related topics are welcome. Also, the Scripture readings for the upcoming weekend will be presented to allow for more time to analyze and interpret them. The session will begin at 1:30pm on Tuesday in the Library. (There will be no class on Tuesday, July 14th.)

WeCAN School Supplies Collection

DISCIPLESHIP ... FAITH IN ACTION

Stewardship Thought

*"He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick - no food, no sack, no money in their belts."
- Mark 6:8*

How different we are from the Apostles who took nothing when they ventured out to serve God. Today, we make our journey through life more difficult because of all the material baggage that we drag along. Yet, the more we can let go of, the freer we are to serve God with love and joy.

Financial Stewardship

Collection totals for July 4th & 5th, 2015:

Can you believe that the Incredible Festival is only 8 weeks away?

In 1981 the Festival was celebrated in late September and a Saturday night dance was added. Kiddie rides were part of the festivities as well as additional food stands and over 200 people attended. A Silent Auction, chaired by †Phyllis O'Malley, was a huge success and still is a big source of Festival revenues. Another addition in 1981 was the Incredible Treasure Hunt, cleverly created by "Clue Master" †Bob Byrnes. Those who were there remember that it was very cold so it didn't take long for the Festival to become a late-summer event.

WIN 2 WRISTBAND RIDE TICKETS TO THE INCREDIBLE FESTIVAL! How you ask? It's easy! Each week, a trivia question about the Incredible Festival will be posted in the bulletin. Submit your answer to the Church Office each week and be entered into a drawing for 2 Incredible Festival Wristbands! One submission per person per week will be accepted. But you can increase your chances to win by submitting correct trivia answers each week leading up to the drawing! The drawing will be held on Sunday, August 30th. That means you will have 10 opportunities to be entered to win!

Our third trivia question: In the first few years of the Festival, a special dinner was added. What item was served at the dinner?
