5th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven.” - Matthew 5:16

Brothers and Sisters,

Just as God needed Peter and Paul, and James and John, so too he needs you. Just as in times past, He gave each of them a specific, distinct, unique task to perform for the enrichment of the Kingdom; He has fashioned a specific distinct task that is uniquely yours. We all share the same goals. From the first disciple to the last, the Christian Mission is to be “The salt of the earth and the Light of the world!” Each of us has been called to bring the light and the flavor and the scent and the wonder and the healing power and the joy of God’s love into the lives of others. God has made each of us uniquely who we are. He gives you the grace to envision your individual potential----what you can become. God gives you that challenge. But if you fail to say “Yes!” to it, the kingdom is the poorer, because there is no substitute for you. No one else can do the specific, distinct, unique tasks God has appointed you to do.

But, you ask and rightly so, “How can I know what that task is?” To which Jesus replies, “Take up your cross and follow me!” If you are willing to pay the price of following Jesus who is the “Light of the world,” If you are willing to follow Jesus’ example and be predisposed to accepting the will of God for your life, the task that is yours and no one else’s will be made known to you.

God Bless,

Deacon Del

About Worship The Liturgy Committee recently reflected on moments of silence during Mass: within the penitential rite, after the invitation to pray, at the conclusion of a reading or the homily, and after Communion. These moments are intentional and provide us time to reflect on God's mercy, our needs, what we have heard in the homily, and what it means for us to be in communion with Christ in receiving His body & blood. The Church has placed moments of silence within our communal worship. As we notice these, we are more at ease with opportunities for our quiet prayer.

Light for the Week:

Humility is a true virtue for those who see themselves as disciples.

The Gospel images of salt and light capture the heart of discipleship. Common to every household, salt transforms the flattest food; light, so common to our days, is precious and vital when darkness falls as it shows the way. Note that the verb is in the present tense; you are the salt, you are the light. Jesus emphasizes to the disciples that they are already making a difference to others; their task, and ours, is to continue to be salt and light for the world.

Stewardship Thought

"Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven." - Matthew 5:16

The generosity of being a good steward of your gifts has a positive effect on people and it is contagious! Good works encourage more good works. Let your light shine! Be careful to recognize that God is working through you and don't put yourself above the people you have been called to help.
