Fr. Tony's Column

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

“We are an Easter people and Alleluia is our song.” These are the words of St. Augustine in the fourth century and they are as true now as they were then. Our Catechism tells us that “The Paschal mystery has two aspects: by his death, Christ liberates us from sin; by his Resurrection, he opens for us the way to a new life.” The gospel tells us of Peter and John who run to the tomb and find it empty. It says that when John entered the tomb “he saw and believed.” But what did he see – he saw the absence of Jesus and he believed. He did not simply see physically, but he saw with the light of faith.

Pope Benedict says “Faith in the resurrection of Jesus says that there is a future for every human being; the cry for unending life which is a part of the person is indeed answered ... God exists: that is the real message of Easter. Anyone who even begins to grasp what this means also knows what it is to be redeemed.”

I pray that all of you will be filled with Easter joy and may know in a deep way the love of God who has redeemed us. Truly, “We are an Easter people and Alleluia is our song.”

God bless,
Fr. Tony

Happy Easter!

What's Happening Now?? Understanding the Mass

The Words of Institution. After calling down the Holy Spirit to change the bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Christ, the priest now says, as Jesus said at the Last Supper, "Take this all of you and eat of it... and drink from it...". As was His custom, Jesus, a Jew, had gone to Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover with His friends and disciples. The Passover is a remembrance of the tenth plague that God brought down upon the Egyptians whereby the first-born of all their families and animals were killed because Pharaoh would not let the Israelites leave Egypt. In order to be protected from this massacre, the Israelites slaughtered a pure, unblemished lamb and put its blood on the door posts of their homes. Then they roasted this lamb and ate it as their evening meal. After this horrible night, Pharaoh agreed to let the Israelites leave their lives of slavery. Once safely in the desert, God told Moses (Exodus 12:14) that this memorial feast must be celebrated annually. But, it is much more than just recalling an event of the past; it is "reliving" it every year as if it were happening now. (CCC 1363). Think about: Do I participate in this memorial of the Last Supper as if it were happening now?

Council of Catholic Women

The next CCW meeting is on Tuesday, April 7th, hosted by the Board. We will start with a Social at 6:30, followed by making May Baskets for the residents at Lake Minnetonka Shores. All women of the parish are welcome!
